Welcome!

If this is your first visit to the Chapel or one of many, we welcome you to pray with us. You do not have to be Catholic to enjoy the quiet and serenity of this place and we pray that you will come back again and again for the peace that only He can give.

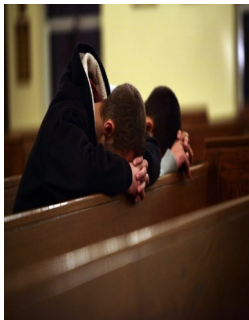

Do, then, bless the house of your servant that it may be before you forever; for you, Lord God, have promised, and by your blessing the house of your servant shall be blessed forever."
2 Samuel 7:29

Chapel Notes

How to Live Mercy (Confrontation)

When you must confront another person for the right reason (correcting an error, warning of danger, clarifying a statement or event), you don't enjoy it. That is, this confrontation does not turn into a "getting this off my chest" or "setting them straight." A merciful person feels the pain of the one they must confront, and they say what must be said as gently as possible. (V. Hampton Wright, "4 Signs that You are Merciful")

Just a Reminder

If you would like to give a special gift for someone, please consider having a Mass in honor of that special someone for their birthday, anniversary or just because.
